

The Food Bank provides education and employment sponsorship for individuals who are unemployed, underemployed, or justice involved through partnerships with Craven Community College and Central Carolina Community College.

Our supported certification programs are currently forklift and CDL.

What we provide to students...

- Scholarships for tuition assistance and cost-of-living support
- Weekly healthy food boxes
- Assistance with SNAP, Medicaid, and Energy Assistance enrollment
- Community resources for housing, clothing, food, mental health, etc.
- Optional financial education
- Job Readiness and Employment supports

Participation Requirements:

- Unemployed, underemployed, or justice-involved
- Enrollment with Central Carolina or Craven Community College
- Successful completion of the Job Readiness Bootcamp program

CULINARY TRAINING PROGRAM

The Food Bank, in partnership with Cape Fear Community College, provides education and employment sponsorship for individuals who are unemployed, underemployed, or justice-involved.

Our supported certification program is a 10-week Culinary Fundamentals course facilitated at the Food Bank's nCino Hunger Solution Center's state-of-the-art commercial kitchen in Wilmington.

What we provide to students...

- Scholarships for tuition assistance and cost-of-living support
- Weekly healthy food boxes
- Assistance with SNAP, Medicaid, and Energy Assistance enrollment
- Optional financial education
- Job Readiness and Employment supports
- Hands-on culinary training taught under the direction of an experienced executive chef
- Preparation for ServSafe Certification exam

Participation Requirements:

- Unemployed, underemployed, or justice-involved
- Enrollment in Cape Fear Community College Culinary Fundamentals Course

Classes will be held

1000 Greenfield Street, Wilmington, NC 28401 | We are on the Long Leaf Park (205) bus route!

Classes will begin Fall 2023

For more information contact:

Rosemary Guendner Workforce Training Coordinator-EWD
910.362.7164 or rcguendner058@cfcc.edu